British Civil Service Regulations

Contribution required

Whatever may be the ~~actual~~ pay and allowances drawn by an officer in foreign service from his employers, his salary, for the purpose of calculating his leave allowances and pension, and of requiring a contribution towards that cost of such leave allowances and pension, shall be assumed to be as follows:—

(a) If he is a member of any of the special services mentioned in Article 806 (iii)—

	Members of the Indian Civil Service	other special service
(i) During the first two years of his service reckoning from the 1st day of April next following his arrival in India or date of appointment if he was appointed in India	Rs 400	Rs 350
(ii) for each subsequent year of service	100	50
up to a maximum of	2500	Twice the maximum furlough allowance admissible to the officer concerned (1)

Example (1) — If an officer's furlough allowance is subject to a maximum of £250 per quarter and official rate of exchange for the year is 1sh 4d per rupee, the maximum on which a contribution is required would be Rs 2500 per annum. If furlough allowance is subject to a maximum of £120 per quarter, the maximum on which contribution is required would be Rs 1200 per annum.

Note (i) — Percentage deductions (e.g. for Civil Funds) in the case of a number of the Indian Civil Service) will be calculated upon that assumed salary.

III. do (b) If the Officer is not a member of any of the above services, then —

(i) If he belongs to a graded service, his name will be retained on it (as seconded), substantive promotion from grade to grade being given to him in due course, and his assumed pay will be that of the grade in which from time to time he is.

(ii) If the Officer belongs to a graded service in which the pay of appointments progressive, his assumed pay will be the pa he last drew in Government employ. If h is promoted to a higher grade while in foreign service, his assumed pay will be the minimum pay of the grade to whic

he is promoted.

(ii) If he does not belong to a graded service, the assumed pay will be, and will remain, that which he last drew while in Government employ

Mysore service Regulations

419. In cases of all officers whose services have been obtained from the British Government in the interests of public service, the Mysore State undertakes to pay the full amount of contribution, levied under these rules from each of these officers, directly to the British Government.

British Civil Service Regulation

Responsibility

826. If the salary of an officer is paid under the orders of the Accountant General at a British Government Treasury the required contribution is deducted at the time of payment. In all other cases the officer himself must pay the amount directly to the British Government in the manner prescribed in the following rules. The Govt will not ordinarily enter into any direct arrangements with the foreign employers of its officers or make any direct demands upon them.

Note. — The contributions in the case of officers lent to the Mysore State are paid by that State through the Comptroller, Mysore, and not by the officers themselves, under the Foreign Department letter No. 1714 I, dated 13th May 1884.
